The event benefits the Colby Umbrell Memorial Fund, which supports local student scholarships and other charities, including the Central Bucks Special Olympics Swim Program, Doylestown American Legion/VFW, American Cancer Society and many other causes. ## Bill Hahn: Motorsports News and Notes Pittman captures Outlaw Nationals

On a night when so many legends of Sprint Car racing reunited at Devil's Bowl Speedway, Daryn Pittman held off Joey Saldana to capture the $20,000 World of Outlaws (WoO) Ted Johnson

Memorial Race run as part of the Texas Outlaw Nationals.

More than 30 of the drivers who competed in the inaugural event back in 1978 were on hand for photos and autographs. The win puts Pittman back in the WoO points lead.

A bit of local flavor: the winning crew chief on the Great Clips Kasey Kahne Racing Sprinter is Pipersville's Michael Carber, who was a Pennsylvania Posse member before going out west. I had a chance to talk with Logan Schuchart and Jacob Allen, who is on the Outlaws tour full time with uncle Bobby Allen, prior to the event, and they both stated they knew it would be tough.

Defending champion Billy Pauch of Frenchtown won for the third time Saturday, capturing the 30-lap main event at New Egypt Speedway. Pauch was on a mission as he started 14th and by lap No. 9, he was headed for his 119th career win at the Jersey oval. Pipersville's Danny Bouc finished 13th.

Last season at Grandview Speedway, Doug Manmiller was able to race to one victory on the NASCAR Modified tour. On Saturday, he got his second on the young 2014 season, and it looks like he will be a factor in the championship run. In the NASCAR Late Model feature, it was Chuck Schuttz taking the checkered over Randy Stout.

Quakertown racers Dan Green and Rick Todorow both finished in the top 12.

How about Ryan Watt taking the $3,000 winner's check at Big Diamond Raceway in the Hoosier Tire Mid-Atlantic Modified Classic event? Quakertown's Rick Laubach almost pulled it off, settling for a third-place finish.

Former Grandview Modified regular Greg Humlantz of Chalfont is running at Delaware International Raceway, and he claimed the AC Delco Modified feature at the big track.

I'm very impressed with Chase Elliott, son of former NASCAR champion Bill Elliott, on what he has accomplished in a very short time. Something must be in the water at the Doverville pool hall.

The 1st Pennsylvania Mustang Club will have its Spring Fever Car Show on April 27 at the Faulkner/Ciocca Ford Service Center in Quakertown. This will be a very good show.

Boys' tennis season enters the stretch run

Holliun Liu, are juniors.

Chandrat Phan is aiming to continue what has been a great individual season at Pennridge.

This Friday, he will take part in the District One Class AAA singles tournament after placing second in the Suburban One League (SOL) Continental Conference singles tourney. In dual matches, the senior has accumulated a 10-1 overall record from the top singles spot.

Despite Phan's success, the Rams have managed only a 4-7 record, dropping several close matches in the process. One of those was a 4-3 setback to Central Bucks South, which holds the top spot in the league at 5-0.

The good news is the Rams are getting strong efforts from several players, including senior Noah Lare and junior Gordon Blaxall at fourth doubles. They have not lost a set in their last five matches, while juniors Neil Frings and Kevin Xander are at third doubles. Sophomore Steve Mehlbaum and senior Ben VanPelt start at second, and seniors Ernest Pellicciotti and Jeremy Tyldena are the top duo. Seniors Raphael Lopez and Ernest Pellicciotti play singles.

"Matches are won at doubles and with strong play," head coach Frank Flanagan said.

"Our team is full of guys who are not only good players, but are excellent young men," he continued. "My expectations are for them to finish out the season strong and also have fun, as most of them are seniors. As a coach, I want them to be able to take the lessons we learn about teamwork, effort, values, etc. and apply them now to their lives in college and the workplace."

The Rams face three teams this week, Springfield, Neshaminy and Hatboro-Horsham.

Palisades is sporting a 4-8 overall mark through April 21. Included are victories over Pen Argyl, Palmerton and both Notre Dames, Green Pond and East Stroudsburg. The Pirates also came close in their April 14 meeting with Southern Lehigh, but fell short by a 3-2 score.

Jimmy Sturm did earn a straight-set triumph at third singles that day, while James Donnelly and Landon Mueller rallied from a 6-0 loss in the first set to win their second doubles match.

Sturm is joined in singles play by Nate Newburg in the No. 1 slot and Miguel Abalos at No. 2. Alex Nicholas and Jansen Terry are the tandem at first doubles.
