Joseph Stoll Elected to Family Service Board of Directors

Joseph Stoll, JD, MBA of Churchville was recently elected to the Board of Directors of Family Service Association of Bucks County.

Stoll, a Managing Director and Relationship Manager at Glenmede Trust Company in Philadelphia, brings more than thirty years of management experience to Family Service. He attended LaSalle University where he earned his bachelor's degree and master's of business administration. Stoll then went on to attend Temple University's Beasley School of Law. He has served the community as a board member of the Council Rock Baseball Association and as a program coordinator at the Philadelphia Senior Center.

"Joe has a keen interest in providing assistance to community members, and he has played an active role in youth sports and coaching," said Gary P. Lux, ChFC, CFP, a member of Family Service's Board of Directors. "He brings to our Board a willingness to spread our message and identity as well as a genuine desire to help Family Service generate the support needed to successfully continue our mission."

Stoll's plans include helping Family Service become more visible in the community. "I want those in need to know there are people here at Family Service who care and are willing to help," shared Stoll. "I would also like more business owners to consider supporting the organization, and I'd like to figure out a way to reward those who have provided continuous support."
